

EXECUTIVE RELEASE

January 24, 2012

Two New Appointments to UBCM Executive

On December 1, 2011 notice was provided to the membership of two vacancies on UBCM's Executive. The notice invited expressions of interest from eligible elected officials for the position of Director at Large and Vancouver Metro Area Representative.

Following a vote by the Executive members, UBCM is pleased to announce the following appointments:

Director at Large:
Councillor Claire Moglove, City of Campbell River

Vancouver Metro Area Representative
Mayor Peter Fassbender, City of Langley

"We are very pleased to have Peter and Claire joining us for our next Executive meeting," said Heath Slee, UBCM President. "Both of them bring unique professional and elected experience to the table, and we are glad to once again have a full complement of representatives from the Metro region."

The new appointments take effect immediately.
