22-Jun-10	Enderby	Agree-in-Principle	No comment
Strategy WS-1.4: Develop minimum lot size policies that are contingent upon local conditions, reflecting the precautionary principle, so that land use decisions, in the face of incomplete information or uncertainty, must ensure that the cumulative effects of development do not compromise the sustainability of the community.

All Health Authorities should enforce the same standards; IHA must review their current standards with the rest of the HAs throughout the province. The HA water regulatory systems should be equitable, rationalized and balanced. Local governments should not be required to exceed the provincial standards for water quality.
22-Jul-10	Lumby	Agree-in-Principle	Expand to all HAs within the province - same standards apply across the province and should not exceed water quality standards within the BC Water Act.
22-Jun-10	Enderby	Agree-in-Principle	Replace with the following statement: 'Encourage the provincial government and IHA to review water quality standards, guidelines and reporting mechanisms to ensure reasonable, realistic and consistent protection of water quality throughout the North Okanagan'. 22-Jun-10	Enderby	Disagree	Every community has there own system, restricted by Community Charter/LGA, Best Practices Guide. Dictates development cost approaches, make it a Best Practices Guide with transparency as the key. A diversity of approaches and different economic strategies should be taken into account.
Strategy WS-3-3: Discourage private water and wastewater utilities within the North Okanagan, with the acknowledgement that while a private solution may appear to be a convenient and expedient means of providing water distribution and wastewater treatment for development outside of utility service areas, these solutions should be seen only as temporary. The ultimate cost of providing public service should be considered as a part of the decision for allowing such systems.

The majority of the lands identified in the Annexation Areas map are considered to be part of the Rural Protection Area. Through the emphasis on focusing growth in Neighbourhood Centres and in existing developed areas, the Official Community Plan seeks to protect rural and agricultural lands that are currently within the existing boundaries.

Municipal Council and EAAC Comments as of October 7, 2010

13-Sep-10	Vernon	Agree	Under Strategy UC-1.1, item 9 states that local governments will respect the Rural Protection Area when reviewing relevant proposals, including annexations. Additionally, item 10 states that local governments will discourage proposals inconsistent with the Rural Protection Area. While the City recognizes the value of rural and agricultural lands, the flexibility to assess the merits of including an individual property, or block of properties, contiguous with the municipal boundary in a boundary adjustment application should be reflected in the strategies. The City recommends the Urban Containment/Rural Protection element of the Regional Growth Strategy provide further clarity with regards to the development of processes designed to address periodic boundary adjustments and assess the potential impacts on the Rural Protection Area.
